Some days ago, I had a fearful dream. I was sleeping soundly in a beautiful room. At midnight, I saw somebody entering my sleeping room. He awoke me from my deep sleep. I saw a giant-like man before me. He was asking me to hand over the cash that my mother had given to me for safe custody. I denied any cash with me. Then he caught hold of my arms and dashed me on the head to hand over him the cash. I had the cash but I did not want to give it to him. He took a pistol to shoot me dead. I was frightened out of wits. I was crying at the top of my voice. He silenced me with a slap and taped my mouth. Then, at the point of pistol, he demanded the cash in question. Upon my last denial, he was flared up. His pistol went off with a tearing sound which woke me up from my dream. I recited some verses from the Holy Quran in fear. Thank God, I was saved. It was the booming of a gun on the border.
